Two Persons Killed, Six Injured In Auto Accidents Over Week-End

rites tomorrow FOR MRS. ANNA PY, COLORFUL PIONEER

Native Of France Was Widely Known In South County

Southern Alameda county lost a colorful and widely-known pioneer Tuesday morning when Mrs. Anna Py, 74, died at her home at Scott's Corners near Sunol from injuries suffered when she was struck by an automobile driven by Dr. D. M. Fraser, Livermore dentist, the preceding evening.

Mrs. Py, was a native of Paris, France, and came to New York when young. She married Jules Le Pleux in the eastern city, and her daughter Marie, who survives her, was born there.

Following the death of her first husband, Mrs. Py came to Sunol in 1900. She married Alfred Py, who had purchased the original Scott's Corner store from Scott in 1890. It was in this historic building that the famous bandit, Joaquin Murrieta, once shot and killed a clerk.

Mrs. Py, a lover of animals and the soil, maintained a large vineyard on her property previous to the war. She insisted upon doing all of her work, particularly the cultivation and pruning of the vines. She raised huge numbers of pigeons a number of years ago, at one time having a flock of 15,000. The corner where she lived is still known for its wheeling flocks of the birds.

Sociable and keenly interesting, Mrs. Py was known to all old timers in this region. Her pall bearers will be chosen from among her old friends. They will be: Lee Wells, R. Roberts and T. Silver, all of Pleasanton, and Antone King, Ralph Knight and Frank Mendonca, of Sunol.

The deceased is survived by her only daughter, Miss Marie Le Pleux, who lived with her, and by a brother, Pierre Combettes, and two nieces in Paris.

There will be services at the home this afternoon. The Rev. Father Hennessey, of Pleasanton will officiate.

The funeral will be tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock from the home, thence to the St. Ignatius cathedral, San Francisco, where there will be a high mass at 11 o'clock.

Interment will be in the Holy Cross cemetery in San Francisco.

Local Jurists Named On County Committee

Thomas J. Power, Irvington attorney and Judge Allen G. Norris, of Centerville, are two named on the Alameda county committee to assist in bringing about changes in state judicial practices when the State Bar Association meets at Pasadena on September 19 for the seventh annual convention.

The two local jurists are numbered among the county lawyers and judges, under the leadership of A. J. Wootsey, of Alameda, who will attend the convocation.

Well-Known Woman Hit By Car Near Sunol Monday Evening

Two persons, one of them a local woman and another identified as a San Jose man, were killed, and six persons injured in a series of automobile accidents in Washington township last week-end, authorities reported Tuesday. Heavy traffic over Sunday and Admission day made highways in this district dangerous.

The dead: Mrs. Anna Py, well known Sunol woman.

Martin A. Shenahan, San Jose baker.

Struck Near Sunol

Mrs. Anna Py, well-known southern Alameda county woman, died at her home at Scott's corners near Sunol at 8:10 o'clock Tuesday morning from injuries received early Monday night when she was struck by a car driven by Dr. D. M. Fraser, Livermore dentist.

According to members of the highway patrol, who investigated the fatal accident, Mrs. Py was struck while crossing the highway from her home to her service station. Fraser, is said to have stated that he saw her in the road and attempted to swing to one side. Mrs. Py hesitated, he said, and started to drive uncertainly in the road. He swung to the side, skidded, and struck the woman with the rear fender of his machine. She was thrown to the pavement.

Mrs. Py, who has lived in this district for many years, was well-known. She and her daughter, Miss Marie Le Pleux, have run the Scott's corner service station for some time. The younger woman survives her.

Walking on Highway

A man identified as M. A. Shenahan, 55, of San Jose was struck by an automobile and almost instantly killed Sunday evening while he was walking on the edge of the highway between Irvington and Warm Springs. Deputy Coroner F. B. Botello investigated.

Carl Nordvick, of Newark, driver of the car, was not held. The identification was made through a lodge card found in the dead man's pocket.

Shenahan, said to have been about 55 years of age was in an intoxicated condition, members of the highway patrol stated. He had been ejected from an Irvington restaurant shortly before the fatal accident, it is said.

Nordvick, who is well known in this district, was questioned by police, but released immediately.

Tom Silva, constable who investigated, stated that Shenahan had come to Irvington to seek work in a bakery there.

Highway Crashes

In an open highway head-on collision near the Masonic Home on the Niles-Decoto road early Sunday afternoon, Mrs. James Nealon, of 2111 McGee Avenue, Berkeley, was seriously hurt. Her husband, who was driving at the time, was unharmed.

The crash is said to have occurred when Nealon, driving south turned out to pass a car in front of him. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Russo, of Richmond, approaching from

GARDENER TAKEN FOR RIDE; TIED TO CANYON TREE

Oakland Japanese Has Hair-raising Trip Friday Night

T. Nakamura, Japanese gardener, of 2618 Valdez Street, Oakland, will have something to tell his grandchildren that borders on the breath-taking, unless he desires to forget the unpleasant incident. Nakamura was kidnapped, taken for a wild ride about the east bay in his own car, and finally tied to a tree in Niles canyon. The escapade happened Friday night.

According to O. W. Ebright, local constable, Nakamura told that he had parked his car at Lenox Street and Grand Avenue in Oakland and visited with friends. When he came out and unlocked his car, an uncouth individual appeared at his side and demanded that he hurry up and get in. The order was strengthened by the muzzle of a heavy revolver. To his dismay, as he scrambled into the car, Nakamura noticed another equally uncouth person enter the opposite door and seat himself behind the wheel. What followed, the gardener could state only incoherently. They rode and rode, for hours, he said, until they arrived in Niles canyon, where the kidnappers stopped the car, ordered him out and tied him to a tree near the Richmond bridge. The thugs relieved him of $44 in cash, boarded his car and sped away.

Nakamura struggled free and hitch-hiked to Niles, where he got in touch with Ebright. He described the two men as young and burley. Ebright gathered all details, and a wide search for the culprits is under way.

FIRE DISTRICT BEATEN IN IRVINGTON BALLOT BY NINETEEN VOTES

YOUNG IRVINGTON COUPLE HURT IN CROSSING CRASH

Mr. and Mrs. John Perry Painfully Injured at Newark

A young Irvington couple were seriously injured about 9 o'clock last Thursday night when their car was struck by a Southern Pacific freight train at the grade crossing on the Newark main street.

The victims, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, were extricated from the wreckage of their automobile, which had been hurled from the track, and were picked up by No. 74, a local passenger train bound for San Jose. The train was met by an ambulance at the station in that city and the injured couple were rushed to the county hospital.

Perry, about 25, suffered a badly cut scalp and was weak from loss of blood. His wife, about 22, has a broken leg, a number of teeth knocked out and lacerations of the face. Both are expected to recover.

PRUNE GROWERS AT CENTERVILLE PROTEST PACT

Market Agreement Hit As Packers Project; Demand Change

Dissenters to the AAA prune marketing agreement met at the Washington Union high school, Centerville, Tuesday night and demanded that the agreement be scrapped and replaced with a federal purchasing plan similar to those in effect in the wheat, cotton, tobacco and hog industries, according to word received here Wednesday.

Led by Giles Bradley, of Morgan Hill, one of the speakers at Tuesday's meeting, a delegation will go to Healdsburg today to lodge a formal protest with a federal representative. A Santa Clara county hearing will be arranged, later, it is said.

Declaring that the present pact is a packers agreement, the speakers Tuesday night asked that a grower's agreement be secured to raise prices to the grower.

Impounding off grade prunes, and releasing standard grades for marketing by the growers was asked under the new agreement sought. The growers at the meet declared that they wanted to be paid to reduce their crops on the same basis as the hog, cotton, wheat and tobacco are paid at present.

Satisfied growers, who are backing the plan as it stands, state that the dissenting groups represent a faction that is more interested in individual problems than in the problems of the industry.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks Off On Trip to Nebraska

Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Parks left Niles Tuesday noon on the first leg of a trip to Nebraska. They plan to drive leisurely to Ord, Nebraska, where they will visit with Mr. Parks' relatives, and renew old acquaintances. Before returning they will drive on to Chicago and visit the World's Fair in that city.

Light Vote Tuesday As Town Considers Need For Department

Irvington voters rose up Tuesday and once and for all proved that a fire department is something that they do not want, if ballots cast in the fire district election may be construed as a straw in the wind.

The vote was light. Out of some 500 registered voters in the district, only 189 made their way to the polls, and 104 of those cast "noes". There were 85 ballots in favor of the district.

It is thought by civic leaders in Irvington who have been eager to have the district formed, that the campaign was not carried out in a clear enough manner. It is said that numerous voters had not received clear information as to just exactly what the formation of the district would cost them in taxes.

The battle will not be abandoned, enthusiasts say at Irvington, and the machinery of convincing residents that they need a department will continue to function.

The progressive businessmen of the town, recognizing the dire need for a department, have been agitating for it for many months.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Shame Of Morro Castle Seamen

It has now been established beyond any reasonable doubt that the Morro Castle catastrophe was the direct result of a drunken debauchery on board, in which seamen and officers probably participated. Well past midnight, the Bacchanalian revelry went on in apparent abandon. As a climax, the ship was set afire accidentally by the participants of the drunken orgy.

Several hundred people lost their lives in a disaster having no counterpart in horror on the Atlantic coast. It was a huge sacrifice for your vaunted "personal liberty."

Reprehensible and shameless as was the inference that seamen and officers were drinking while on duty, the cowardly attitude of the Morro Castle crew, when the ship caught fire, will go down to posterity as one of the foulest pages in the history of the sea.

Officers and crew saved their own lives, and let the passengers—among them women and children—burn to death or drown in a storm-tossed ocean.

It is the unwritten law of seafaring men—and rarely violated—that passengers on a burning or sinking ship must be the first to be saved. A minimum crew man the lifeboats, that more room may be had for passengers, whose safekeeping has been entrusted to the officers' and crew's seafaring ability and personal honor.

But the Morro Castle cowards abandoned the ship, and out of seventy people who landed in one lifeboat, only five were passengers. This incident may be but a reflection of the morals of the day. The world can not disclaim the God of our fathers, plunge into immorality and dishonesty, and then in an hour of great emergency be purified and act as honorable men.

With the screams of women and little children ringing in their ears, the Morro Castle crew turned yellow, saved their own liquor-besotted hides, because they forgot God and the honor of the sea.

Here's Your Hat; What's Your Hurry?

The Township Register is neither surprised nor greatly pained at the unenviable position in which William Gibbs McAdoo finds himself as an aftermath of the primary election.

A one-time idol of national Democracy, the junior senator from California has been slipping fast during the past twelve months. The ex-secretary of the treasury, and son-in-law of Woodrow Wilson, greatest Democrat of the generation, has abused the friendship of thousands of admirers, not only in California, but throughout the nation. His lack of loyalty seems to have been an acquired bad streak of the last few years.

Some men cannot stand success. Or maybe a better way to put it is that many men can cover up their tracks for a long time but finally, becoming careless under the benign smile of prosperity, they throw away restraint and caution, and at last their sins find them out.

Going back in history a little we find it was a chance remark—ah, rather a studied interrogation inspired by that man Reed from Missouri—now dead—in 1924, preceeding the Democratic national convention of that year that nominated Davis,—revealed to the public Mr. McAdoo's connection with the oil interests to the extent of a $50,000-a-year retaining fee. To have earned this princely salary McAdoo, to be quite frank with our readers, did—well, absolutely nothing that one might with certainty place his finger on.

That revelation lost McAdoo the Democratic nomination for president. Time went on and the public forgot.

Starting life over again, McAdoo came to California, and in a very few years had the Democratic party out here in his vest pocket. Always an opportunist, and gifted with a mighty good political vision, McAdoo seized the Democratic nomination for United States senator, when the average man 'round town thought the chances of electing a Democratic senator vague indeed.

The Roosevelt tidal wave swept McAdoo back

POPULAR COUPLE WED SATURDAY AT SMART CEREMONY

Miss Marie Donohue And Lawrence Keller Take Vows at San Jose

Two prominent southern Alameda county families were joined by the marriage of Miss Marie Donohue, of Oakland, and Lawrence Keller, of Niles, at a beautiful private ceremony at the St. Patrick's cathedral in San Jose Saturday morning.

The Rev. Father Maher, a close friend of the Keller family, officiated at the nuptial mass.

The bride was dressed in a smart brown traveling suit and small close-fitting brown hat. She wore brown shoes, with gloves and bag to match. Mrs. Kathleen Christesen, of Oakland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an attractive blue suit, John Hunter, of Niles, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, which took place at 9 o'clock, the bridal couple and their attendants drove to the St. Claire hotel, where a smartly appointed wedding breakfast was held. The couple left directly after on a wedding trip through the northwest. They plan to drive through Oregon and Washington. They will be gone about ten days.

After returning here, Mr. and Mrs. Keller plan to live for a time at the Hotel Belvoir, where they have taken a cottage. They will immediately begin construction of a new home on the Keller ranch on Morrison avenue.

Mrs. Keller is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Donohue, of Oakland, and niece of Judge William Donohue, prominent Oakland jurist. She is a graduate of the Amador Valley high school at Pleasanton, and attended the Notre Dame convent in San Francisco. She is popular in both the Oakland and Pleasanton younger sets.

Keller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Keller, prominent Niles residents. He attended local schools and is widely known in this district. He is active in social and political circles, and regarded as an authority on horticultural problems. He has been engaged in ranching for a number of years.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS HUNT SUPPORT OF SINCLAIR

Political support of Upton Sinclair, Democratic candidate for governor, by the Thirtieth Assembly District Democratic league, was definitely hinted as result of the league's meet at the Native Sons hall, Hayward, last Thursday night.

The question of supporting the party candidate was warmly discussed. The league constitution, however, provided that it shall support the party nominee. Without changing the constitution, therefore, the league stands officially pledged to Sinclair; it was explained by Frank E. Swan, secretary-treasurer of the organization. Thomas J. Power, of Irvington, presided at the session.

Democratic leaders in the south county, and particularly in Washington township, have made comment on the issue. Several have avowed an unequivocal stand for the Pasadena author, while others stated that they "would take the middle road," which is to be construed as a leaning toward Raymond Haight, Commonwealth nominee. It is generally thought, however, that east bay Democrats, although generally silent on the question, will swing into line for Sinclair.

The business at the meet, run off first, included discussion of a card party, to be held at the grammar school on the evening of September 28. The fete will be for the benefit of the organization to obtain funds to carry on their work here.

Formation of a first aid study group, to satisfy requirements to make the local unit a standard association were also discussed. Mrs. Bendel said. All parents interested in taking up a six weeks course in first aid should get in touch with Mrs. C. M. Myrick.

E. Dixon Bristow was speaker at the meet. He stressed the necessity of widening the scope and interest of the association to homes where it is not now considered.

The two new teachers, Miss Lurena Chenery and Miss Mildred Bennett were introduced.

COUNTRY CLUB PLANS SERIES OF FETES THIS YEAR

Mrs. Roland Bendel was hostess to the members of the Country club ways and means committee at her home last Thursday afternoon. The group discussed plans for three main functions to be held during the coming year.

It is the purpose of the club this year to clear the mortgage on the club house next spring. The affair will be planned with an eye to this end, Mrs. Bendel declared.

The first event will be a cake contest, open to the public, to be held early in November. It will be in conjunction with a food sale.

In January Mrs. Jack Williamson will give an outstanding musical program, the proceeds of which are to go to the club.

Another function planned for the spring will be a benefit card party.

Frank Simmons, of Livermore, together with Charley O'Malley and Sam Fisher were Niles visitors Monday evening of this week.

GORDON TO DIRECT DRAMATICS AT NIGHT SCHOOL

Wesley Dexter Gordon, of Niles, active in literary and dramatic work in this district, has undertaken instruction of the dramatics and public speaking classes at the Washington Evening high school, it was learned last week.

Gordon will fill a vacancy in the night school staff left by the illness of Miss Ruth Sandkubie, former instructor. With sound experience in play-writing and producing, and familiar with radio work, Gordon is expected to inject vigor into his classes.

Two other new instructors to assume their duties at the night school this time are: Miss Adeline McWilliams, who will have charge of the commercial subjects and Miss Claribel Panery, Stanford graduate student, who will replace Miss Sybil Botelho as director of the applied art sections.

The possibility of a course in laboratory chemistry is foreseen as the result of interest shown by a number of local people for that work. If the necessary ten students will register for the course, it will be added to the curriculum.

TOYON BRANCH TO PARTICIPATE IN OAKLAND FETE

Initial plans for their participation in the annual Children's hospital fete in Oakland were laid by members of the Toyon Branch Tuesday afternoon when the group met for the first time this fall at the home of the chairman, Mrs. J. R. Whipple.

Members who attended Tuesday were: Mrs. August May, Mrs. Robie, Mrs. W. H. Ford, Mrs. Thomas Witherly, Mrs. Rosalie Donovan, and Mrs. J. E. Thane.

The afternoon was spent in business discussion and in clipping pictures for children's scrapbooks.

The local branch will emphasize the sale of nut-bread, for which it is famous, and fibre brooms at the Oakland fete.

Corpus Christi Whist Here Tomorrow Night

Members of the Corpus Christi parish will gather tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Moise, on Second Street, for a benefit whist. The affair has been carefully planned, and is expected to draw a large number of people. It will be for the benefit of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duarte are back in Niles after a vacation with Duarte's brother at Martinez.

Y. L. I. Picnic Hailed as Outstanding This Week

The annual Y. L. I. picnic, always one of the high spots for the local organization, was a great success Tuesday of this week, members said. The affair was held at the Witherly park at Mission San Jose. Members of the local institute attended one-hundred percent, and numerous visitors were on hand.

It is said that the menu was exceptionally fine this time.

Congregational Guild Has Meet This Week

The Congregational church guild held their first meeting this week at the church guild rooms, Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, new president, presided.

Mrs. R. W. Mendenhall and Mrs. Roland Bendel were hostesses. The group cleaned the Sunday School rooms and guild rooms at the church last week, in preparation for the meet this week.

Donald L. Cave, Vallejo banker, spent Friday afternoon with Niles friends.

Civic Group To Meet After 2 Postponements

Postponed twice because of holiday Mondays, the first Niles Chamber of Commerce fall meeting will be held Monday noon at the Florence restaurant, Niles.

The civic group, adjourned since last June, will have a number of business sessions to clean up questions held over the summer.

With the membership drive eminently successful last spring, it is thought that the local chamber will begin one of its most effective years.

A TOWER TO THE Stratosphere BUILT OF ICE REFRIGERATORS

Think of it! The ice refrigerators that Californians are buying from their ice companies this season would make a tower twelve miles tall... higher than any stratosphere balloon has ever flown.

To meet this year's demand for 15,000 new, low-temperature ice refrigerators, two of the nation's biggest ice refrigerator factories, located in California... are working three shifts a day. And the supplying of crystal-clear ice for these refrigerators will keep another important home industry busy for years to come.

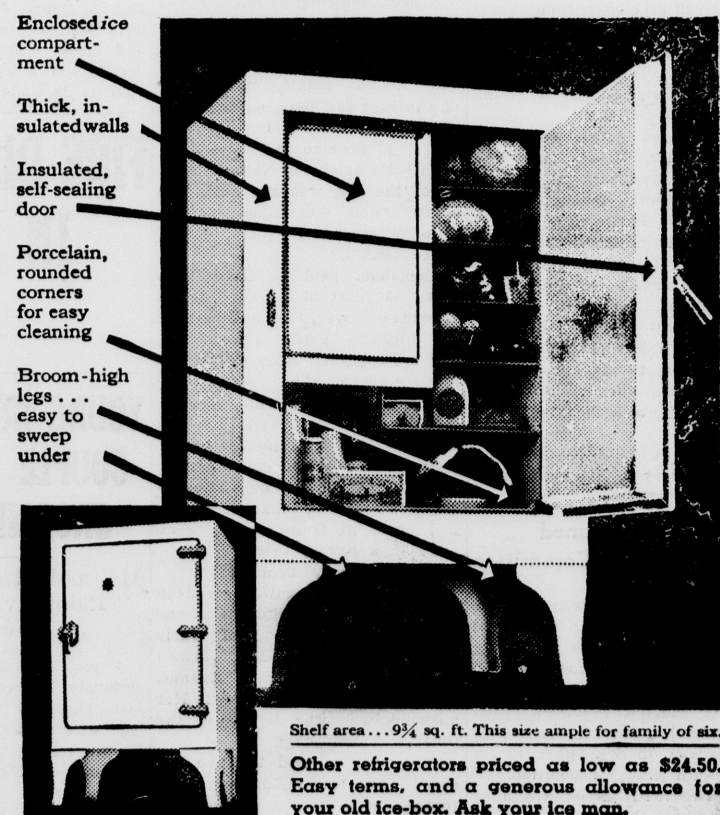

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO YOU?

When home industry hums, it means better times for you. But there's another meaning, even closer to home, in this record demand for ice refrigerators. It means that more and more California housewives are discovering that ice is both cheaper and better. For only ice gives the non-drying cold that keeps foods fresh and tasty.

YOUNG MOTHER IS TAKEN BY DEATH SATURDAY

Mrs. Delinda Miller, twenty-three year old wife of Henry Miller, of Alvarado died at her home there late last week.

The young wife was the mother of two children. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel C. Silveira, of Alvarado. Both parents are living.

Mrs. Miller was a native of Mt. Eden, later moving with her parents to Alvarado, where she met and married Miller. She was well-known and popular there.

The Rev. Father Bray officiated at services held at the Chapel of Palms, Centerville Monday. Interment was in the Holy Ghost cemetery.

ALVARADO STABBING NEARLY FATAL TO CROP WORKER

One Alvarado man was near death in the Alameda county hospital and another held by police as the result of another Alvarado stabbing. The fracas occurred at about 12:30 o'clock Friday night.

The victim of the attack is Casamero Remero, crop worker. He was found on the sidewalk by Joe C. Alves, sugar plant employee, who immediately summoned the authorities. R. Gistlo, said to be a friend of Remero's, was taken into custody when found in an Alvarado rooming house in an intoxicated condition and with his clothes blood-stained. Gistlo was held, police declared, when he was unable to offer a coherent explanation of the blood stains.

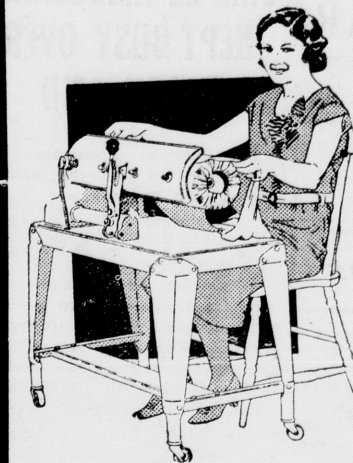

Remero, it is said, was stabbed dangerously close to the jugular vein. He had lost large quantities of blood and was considered to be in a dangerous condition. He recovered sufficiently, however, to be sent home yesterday. He refused to place charges and Gistlo was released.

Flower Meanings
Flowers, according to florists, have meanings it's well to keep in mind. The crocus implies cheerfulness; the lily-of-the-valley, return of happiness; and the violet, constancy or modesty. The pansy insinuates heartiness or thoughts; the buttercup, riches or memories of childhood; and rosemary and the forget-me-not, remembrance. The hyacinth is sent for sport, the daisy points to innocence, the peony to bashfulness, and the bachelor button to celibacy. Roses are for love and lilies for purity, the sunflower for constancy or adoration, and the orchid says "a belle." The water lily, the floating blossom so appropriate for eloquence and purity of heart, speaks fully for itself.

Congregational Church News

"Ye Must Be Born Again." is the subject chosen by the pastor for his sermon Sunday morning. He will attempt to reinterpret this old, old text in the light of modern thought.

The Sunday School held promotions last week. Our study-courses are graded according to scientific and day-school standards. There is as little repetition as possible in subject matter from one grade to the next. It is our aim to give a thorough knowledge of Christian principles in each class, finally teaching the highest social and moral ethics as the students advance to receive this higher knowledge.

The Sunday School will give two parties this week. The Junior's will be entertained in the church Friday night, beginning at seven-thirty. The primary department will give the little folks a delightful two hours Saturday afternoon, September 15, beginning at two o'clock. Refreshments at both parties, of course!

The Christian Endeavor is holding its first party of the new season on Friday night, September 28. Watch your local paper for more information concerning this important event.

Bible Theatre

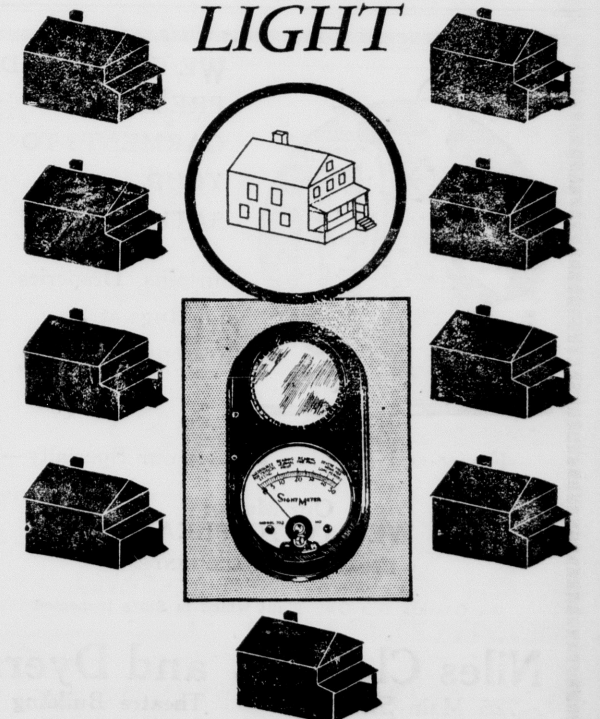

Bible Theatre On the Air has an entirely different type of play for next Sunday, KQW, San Jose station, 4 o'clock. The drama to be given will be based on the parable of the talents, and is entitled, "To Him Who Hath." You will not wish to miss this offering by our local people. Those in the cast as you will first hear them are: Joam, who was given five talents, Jack Townsend; Moash, who was given two talents, Ted Dundas; Taldeth, who was given one talent, Wesley Dexter Gordon; and Elazer, the Master who returned from a far journey, Clark A. Griffin.

HONOR COURT

Lawrence Pine, John McGowan, Bud Mello, Bob Zwissig and Julius Pine attended the quarterly Eagle Court of Honor at the Hayward Memorial building Tuesday night.

Mrs. C. Waldner, son Edwin and daughters Sally and Huwina, left for their home in Taft, Sunday after spending the summer with Mrs. H. R. Hunt, Mrs. Waldner's mother. Mr. Clarence Waldner, who has been ill, will rejoin his family after a series of treatments at a Berkeley hospital.

1 HOME IN 10 HAS ADEQUATE LIGHT

AFTER sundown only one home in ten has light sufficient to help vision instead of hurting the eyes. That is a strong statement but it is true.

Would you like to know for sure if your home is properly lighted at night? This is what you should do about it: 1. Have a Sight Meter test made of the lighting in your home. 2. Have enough light in enough places—25 to 100 footcandles. 3. Have diffused light without glare. 4. Ask your local dealer to help you or call on this company.

Remember this, the difference in cost between good light and poor light is very small. Good lighting pays for itself when it saves eyesight and preserves health.

HUSKER GRID TEAM SET TO REPEAT LEAGUE WIN

Verve and snap are two words that characterize the first week of intensive practice of the championship Husker eleven on the new turf at the Washington Union high school. There is no lagging this year, and every man is on the jump to bring another pennant to the local school.

Ed Rose and Al Muniz, upon whom the brunt of the ball packing will fall this season, are getting themselves accustomed to the new ball. Rose's long spirals are already getting under control, and Muniz's flat passes have a mid-season accuracy. Phippen, Sinclair, Dinsmore, Manuel and a host of other linemen loom large and deadly. It will have to be a fast and heavy ball carrier to gain an inch through the Husker wall this year.

The C team, with limitations as to weight, age and height, is a new league addition this season. It will be trained and coached by Manuel Nunes, Stanford graduate and local student. Nunes plans to bring his diminutive players into league prominence.

The Roosevelt game, which was to have been this afternoon, was indefinitely postponed early this week, when coach Jess Regli received word from coach Tommy Fitzpatrick, of the Oakland school, that housing conditions at the school prevented the maintenance of a second string.

The Husker schedule, as arranged to date is as follows:

Sept. 21, Los Gatos, here.
Sept. 28, Menlo, here.
Oct. 5, Santa Clara, there.
Oct. 12, Emeryville, here.
Oct. 19, Foothills, here.
Nov. 2, Pleasanton, there.
Nov. 9, Livermore, there.

Betsy Ross Parlor Returns From Fair

Although they did not return with the prize, as they had hoped to do the members of the Betsy Ross parlor, Native Daughters, have nothing but praise for the state fair and the great spectacle in which they participated Monday. They returned, about ten in number, Monday night. They were accompanied by an equal number of the Native Sons. The group had hoped to figure in the prizes for the most colorful costumes in the parade. They were attired in early American dress.

TRY THIS ONE ON YOUR ICE BOX, IT'S THE 'MELON COUPE'

Here's a hunch for lunch. Or maybe we should say a "thinner" for dinner. Or perhaps after all we shouldn't have said anything of the sort, but simply referred to this delicious and decorative delicacy by its proper name—which is Melon Coupe. And so to work:

Shape ripe watermelon or cantaloupe or some of each into small balls with a French vegetable scoop. Squeeze the juice of one large orange and one-half lemon into a measuring cup and then add grape juice to fill the cup. Pour this over the melon balls and set in the ice refrigerator to chill. Serve in long-stem glasses as the first course at a luncheon or dinner. Garnish with mint.

The county workers, under the direction of E. Clemens, superintendent, smoothed out the ripples at the roadside and laid well oiled strips. Both coarse and fine gravel topped off the dressing, and the road was opened to traffic yesterday.

The street signs, down for many months while disputes waxed and waned over the proposed names, were permanently installed several weeks ago.

Niles Girl Named Head Of W. U. H. S. League

Miss Leona Solon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Solon, of Niles, was chosen head of the Girls' League of the Washington Union high school at a meeting held Tuesday.

Damon and Pythias

According to Greek legend, Damon and Pythias were two close friends who lived in Syracuse during the early part of the Fourth century, B. C. Pythias was condemned to death by the tyrant Dionysius of Syracuse. He was granted leave to return to his home in order to put his business affairs in order after his friend Damon agreed to remain and be executed in case Pythias did not return. Pythias was delayed and Damon was led to execution, but just as the death stroke was to be dealt Pythias came upon the scene. Dionysius was so favorably struck by the friendship between the two men that he pardoned them both. Damon and Pythias are proverbial in literature for their inseparable friendship.

Busy Potato Flea Is Easily Halted

Sprays and Dusts Are Best Suited for Control of Bothersome Pest.

The potato flea beetle is a tiny, plump, shiny black insect about as long as the diameter of the lead in a pencil and slightly narrower in width. The presence of flea beetles may be easily detected by the peculiar perforated appearance of the injured foliage. In cases of serious damage to leaves by this pest, says a writer in the Wisconsin Agriculturist, the leaves look as if they had been riddled by shot. The beetle hops like a flea, which gives it its name. During the warm days of June and July is the time to watch for this pest and use the sprays and dusts best suited for its control.

Flea beetles feed on a large variety of plants, but are most troublesome on cucumbers, potatoes, tomatoes, egg plants, radishes, and cabbage, and are believed to be responsible for the spread of certain diseases. In July or August a second brood may play havoc with potatoes, tomatoes, and egg plants.

Fortunately flea beetles dislike leaf surfaces covered with any foreign material, such as sprays or dusts; and if treatments are made before serious injury occurs and if the leaf surfaces are thoroughly coated, the insects are easily held in check. Since the adults appear suddenly and work fast, it is important to keep a close watch on the field or garden to detect the first signs of invasion.

Calcium arsenate in Bordeaux mixture is regarded as the safest and most effective spray, while tobacco dust with lime or a calcium arsenate and monohydrated copper sulfate dust with lime are recommended among the dust preparations.

Tiny Organ Tuneful

Familiar tunes are given forth in fairy-like strains by a tiny organ which has been installed in Titania's palace, the exquisite little building which has earned large sums for children's charities in London. It was presented by a Glasgow woman who wished to remain anonymous. The organ's dimensions are only 12 inches high, 3 inches across and 5 inches deep, yet every detail is perfectly wrought by master craftsmen.

Bachelor President

James Buchanan was the only bachelor to serve as President. His niece, Miss Harriet Lane, presided over the White House as First Lady during his term of office. She was left an orphan at the age of nine and made her home with him for many years, serving as his hostess both at home and during his diplomatic career abroad.

First Evidences of Life

The first evidences of life, according to geologists, are found less than half a billion years ago, in the geological era known as the lower Cambrian, although it is probable that plants or animals which left no traces in the rocks had existed before that.

Jerusalem Built on Hill Top

Like many another fortress city Jerusalem was built originally upon a rocky hill top. That made it comparatively easy to defend it against direct attack in the days before gunpowder, or artillery of any description.

Time for Digestion of Venison

Making Ice

Chemists find that clear, strong cakes of ice are made apparently of large ice crystals well-oriented; whereas opaque, weak ice blocks are made of small crystals with salt solution between them.

Soil From Salt Marshes

Black soil from salt marshes in all probability contains certain amounts of nitrogen, phosphoric acid, and potash and, while not as readily available as in commercial fertilizer, will add some plant food to the soil. The organic matter in the black soil will also be of considerable value in improving the physical condition of the cultivated lands, especially if they are sand or of a sandy nature. Where the cost is not too high, the application would be profitable.

Fan Language

"There is an infinite variety of motion to be made use of in the flutter of a fan," once wrote Joseph Addison in the Tatler Magazine. "There is the angry flutter, the modest flutter, the timorous flutter, the confused flutter, the merry flutter, the amorous flutter. Not to be tedious there is scarce any emotion of the mind which does not produce a similar agitation of the fan; inasmuch if I only see the fan of a disciplined lady I know very well whether she laughs, frowns, or blushes. I have seen a fan so very angry that it would have been dangerous for the absent lover who provoked it to come within the wind of it. And at other times so very languishing that I have been glad for the lady's sake the lover was at a sufficient distance from it. I need not add that the fan is a pride or a coquet according to the nature of the person who bears it!"

Town Clock 7 Minutes Fast for 681 Years

Goerlitz, Germany.—This city probably has the only clock in the world which is always wrong.

It is a distinction dear to the heart of every Goerlitzer.

It was in 1253 that the whole thing started. A small group of dissatisfied conspirators had decided that the current town council was superfluous. With true medieval efficiency they arranged to kill them as they left the Rathaus at noon.

But one of the conspirators got a touch of conscience and set the clock on the "Monk's Tower" of the Rathaus seven minutes ahead. The result was that the civic minded conspirators arrived early, were met by the guard, and promptly rendered incapable of further activity.

Seven minutes later the councilmen moved angrily down the steps, heard of the attempt, mopped their collective brow, and proceeded to lunch. Since then the clock has remained seven minutes fast, in honor of the occasion.

First Outlet to Gulf

In 1803 under the administration of Thomas Jefferson, the United States purchased from France the vast domain called Louisiana for the sum of $15,000,000. This gave the United States the first outlet to the Gulf of Mexico. The territory was little known and the Indian tribes were hostile.

India Home of Diamond

India was the original home of the diamond as a jewel. For centuries India remained the sole source of Europe's diamond supply. Diamonds were discovered in Brazil in 1730 and in South Africa in 1867. Now South Africa furnishes 90 per cent of the world's supply.

Hawks Worry Game Breeders

The brain of a pheasant seems to hold a special attraction for the Cooper hawk, recent happenings in the Williamson game management project indicate. Hawks of this species have been observed to attack adult pheasants, remove the brain, and leave the rest of the carcass for other predators. Dead pheasants have been found with only the head mutilated.

Depression Hits Santa Monica PELICANS

There's a story that comes out of Southern California. It's about the pelicans of Santa Monica Bay and these pelicans remind us of a lot of us human beings. The experience teaches us that more and better sales effort is required of every last one of us.

For years these pelicans had been fed by fishermen from their surplus catch, until they got the habit of eating without work.

This year high seas changing currents off Santa Monica cut down the catch, and fishermen no longer had any fish to spare. They noticed that the pelicans languished and grew thin and it dawned on them that they had forgotten how to fish for themselves. So they went down the coast and found some unpampered pelicans who had never been ruined by easy living and free fish. They turned them loose among the starving birds, who sat about on the beach and complained of hard times.

The way those imported pelicans went out after their own fish was an eye-opener. Pretty soon the hungry natives quit watching and tried it themselves. They discovered there are plenty of fish in the sea for the bird with energy and enterprise. And they've quit talking about the hard times."

ARTS, CRAFTS GUILD TO ADOPT BY LAWS, CONSTITUTION

One of the most interesting and instructive meetings since its formation early this summer was held by the Arts and Crafts Guild of Washington township at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thane Monday evening. Mrs. Norman H. Parks, active member, was hostess.

Exhibitions of wood cuts by Miss June Brown, Newark artist; oil paintings by Mrs. Ethel Grau, water colors by Miss Phoebe Ormsby, constituted the art displays of the evening. Jack Williamson, professional photographer, gave an interesting talk on the evolution of photography. Mrs. Justine Adams explained the technique of verse writing. Mrs. Gladys Williamson, A. A. Hatch, Marjorie Griffin and Wesley D. Gordon read prose pieces.

Constitution and by-laws of the organization have been completed by the constitution committee and one hundred copies will be mimeographed and sent out to members this week. Criticisms are to be sent to Mrs. Adams, committee member.

Adoption of the constitution and by-laws will feature the business session at the next meeting, to be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Ormsby early in October.

Editorial Comment

NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

into office. A year later, scandal again scorched his political coat-tails. This time it was learned, by sworn testimony, that McAdoo was on the "preferred" list of the House of Morgan. Now being on the so-called preferred list of that colossus of finance means but one thing—to be a creature of vast capital, no longer free to act the true part of statesman and public servant.

From that day to this, the figure of McAdoo has been growing dimmer and dimmer in the land of the Golden West.

Ingratitude has characterized his activities for the past two years, and with the climax of his divorce a few months ago, his eclipse has been complete and permanent.

It is little wonder, then, that Creel, the McAdoo candidate for governor, made such a sorry race. The ghost of Doheny pranced about arm in arm with the skeleton of J. P. Morgan & Company during the campaign, to add to the general debacle of the McAdoo machine.

McAdoo politically, is dead. His public career is virtually ended.

No use explaining. Useless to call conferences to reaffirm faith in a fallen chief. Worse than folly to whistle along the dark lane of political desolation to keep up courage when the woods are filled with the betrayed friends of yesterday carrying bows, the arrows poisoned with innuendo, which, being hurled into the air may come in contact with half-truths, more damning often than the naked truth of a misdeed.

The gentleman and his friends are intelligent men, conversant with the trend of the public mind, and must know, but perhaps do not want to admit, that what we say is true.

McAdoo, here's your hat; what's your hurry?
